

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 1237

Introduced by Assembly Member Nestande

February 18, 2011

An act relating to postsecondary education.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL’S DIGEST

AB 1237, as introduced, Nestande. Postsecondary education: funding.

Existing law, the Donahoe Higher Education Act, sets forth, among other things, the missions and functions of California’s public and independent segments of higher education, and their respective institutions of higher education. Existing law establishes the University of California, under the administration of the Regents of the University of California, and the California State University, under the administration of the Trustees of the California State University, as 2 of the public segments of postsecondary education. Provisions of the Donahoe Higher Education Act apply to the University of California only to the extent that the regents act, by resolution, to make these provisions applicable. Provisions of the act express legislative intent with respect to the determination of standards and criteria for admission to the University of California and the California State University.

This bill would state the intent of the Legislature to enact legislation to prohibit the use of state funds for remedial coursework at the University of California and California State University.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature to enact
2 legislation to prohibit the use of state funds for remedial
3 coursework at the University of California and California State
4 University.
